A MESSAGE FROM YOUR MP

Dear Friend,

Ahead of the NDP-Liberal budget, Conservatives had a simple ask: make Canada work for the people who've done the work. This means reversing inflationary deficits and taxes, and ending the war on work by letting workers bring home more of what they earn.

Instead, the Liberals have given us another tax and spend budget that adds fuel to Trudeau's inflationary fire and shrinks paycheques with skyrocketing government taxes.

Budget 2023 adds $40.1 billion to the national debt. Next year, Canadian taxpayers will spend $43.9 billion on interest alone! Paying interest on Justin Trudeau's debt is quickly becoming one of the largest line items in the federal budget.

Justin Trudeau and his NDP-Liberals also rejected Conservative calls to cancel all planned tax increases on Canadians. Instead, on April 1st they raised the carbon tax on your gas, groceries, and home heating.

The NDP-Liberals are perfectly happy doling out billions of dollars of contracts to high-priced consultants like McKinsey. They are more than willing to award $156 million worth of pay raises to their friends at the CBC, while 1 in 5 Canadians are skipping meals, 9 in 10 young Canadians believe they'll never own a home, groceries are up 11%, and mortgages and rents have more than doubled.

After 8 years of Justin Trudeau, Canadians deserve a break. They didn't get one from Budget 2023. That's why Conservatives voted against the budget.

Conservatives have a plan to make Canada work for the people who work. We will bring home powerful paycheques with lower taxes so hard work pays off. We will bring home lower prices by ending inflationary carbon tax hikes and deficit spending that drive up inflation and interest rates. We will bring homes people can afford, by removing government gatekeepers to free up land and speed up building permits.

I hope you will take a minute to fill out the attached survey card to let me know your thoughts on the Liberal-NDP budget.

Sincerely,

Brad Redekopp

A Message from PIERRE POILIEVRE

After 8 years of Justin Trudeau's inflationary taxes and deficit spending, the cost of living is rising faster than at any time in 40 years. It no longer pays to work. Nine out of ten young people believe they'll never be able to afford a home because mortgage payments have more than doubled under Justin Trudeau. 1 in 5 Canadians are skipping meals, and people are going to food banks asking for help to end their lives, not because they're sick, but because they can't afford to eat.

Budget 2023 DID NOTHING to reverse Trudeau's inflationary deficits and spending.

Conservatives will make Canada work for the people who've done the work. We must bring home powerful paycheques, bring home lower prices and bring homes workers can afford. It is the common sense of the common people.
